

Email: ajourneyintowholeness@ymail.com

336-708-1148

Professional Disclosure Statement

Welcome to A Journey into Wholeness Life Skill Building Services and thank you for choosing our organization. Please carefully read the following information because it will help you utilize our services more effectively. I would like to inform you that I realize that change is not easy for any of us, however, taking the first step in learning new life skills is a positive step in the right direction to anyone's future. I believe that learning new life skills is a positive step in the right direction to anyone's life/future. I would like to be an additive to collectively assisting in this area of each individual's life who makes a decision to attend my workshops. A Journey into Wholeness Life Skill Building Services do this by implementing life skill building tools, communication, and role play.

If you have any questions or concerns, please ask, and we will do our best to assist you in the most professional way possible.

Professional Credentials: The Executive Director, Charlene Neal Keitt, earned a Dural Bachelor of Arts Degree in Christian Counseling and Bible Theology from Laurel University in High Point N.C. and graduated May 2011. After working in the mental health fields for 10 years, Charlene Neal-Keitt started this company, A Journey into Wholeness Life Skills Building Services. And currently she serves as the Life Skill Building Workshop Facilitator for her company. Previously she served as a Qualified Professional/ Intensive In-home counselor with Support Inc. in Gastonia NC. She also served as an Intake counselor for the Greensboro Pregnancy Care Center in Greensboro NC; Facilitated many workshops but to name a one that stands out, was with Pathways Homelessness, which is dear to her heart. She also ran a five-week program for Fresh Start for Children, a Level III Residential Home in Greensboro, NC. In addition, she served as a substance abuse counselor with Lexington Treatment Associates, a methadone clinic in Lexington and Thomasville, NC.

Furthermore, Charlene Neal-Keitt have had the opportunity to serve others in the form of mentoring by traveling around the world encouraging women; men and children who have been abused mentally, emotionally, and sexually through her book entitled, A Journey Into Wholeness, where she shares her story of how she overcame obstacles.

Email: ajourneyintowholeness@ymail.com

336-708-1148

Since then, she has written two other books entitled: A Journey into the Matters of the Heart and When the Enemy Tries to Stop you, what do you do?

Visits and Fees: Our workshops are $.50.00 per individual. The workshops includes one topic of discussion, demonstration and illustration of both topics, and question and answer session.

We offer virtual workshops and sessions; however, we will travel to the designated location, but travel expenses must be included.

Thank you for choosing A Journey into Wholeness Life Skill Building Services. We look forward to walking with you into your Journey into Wholeness!

Ms. Charlene Neal-Keitt, Bachelor of Arts-Christian Counseling/Bible Theology

Life Skills Counselor- Facilitator

336-708-1148

ajourneyintowholeness@ymail.com

It's time for you to walk into your Journey of Wholeness!